

Ninth-Annual Maristhill Marketplace

WALTHAM, MA - (August 31, 2017) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham, Massachusetts, recently announced that they will be conducting their 9th Annual Fall Marketplace on Friday, September 22<sup>n</sup> from 1:00-6:00pm, and on Saturday, September 23rd from 9:00am-12:00pm.

As in previous years, the Marketplace fundraiser will take place in early Fall, with the raffle drawing set to begin on Saturday the 23rd.

A wide-range of collectibles will be offered at the sale, as well as jewelry, small furniture, holiday items, kitchenware, and hand-knitted Afghans.

"The Marketplace is one of our most anticipated events," said Bill Driscoll, Activities Director.

"Residents, families and friends enjoy the community spirit and camaraderie that this annual fundraiser generates. The proceeds go to a good cause: all monies raised go to the Resident Council fund, which sponsors special events, programs and outings throughout the year for all of our residents."

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care.

People of all faiths and denominations are welcome at the 100-bed facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
