Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Promotes Nurse Manager

SUCCESSFUL CAREER SPANS OVER TWO DECADES

WALTHAM, MA – (December 31, 2007) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that Patti Orifice of Waltham has been promoted to Nurse Manager.

Ms. Orifice began her career at Maristhill in 1984 as a staff nurse, and also held the positions of Med Nurse, Charge nurse, and Supervisor. In her new role, she will oversee nursing activities, scheduling and all aspects of the care provided to the 43 Residents of the facility's recently upgraded B-Level.

A graduate of Northeast Regional Vocational School, Ms. Orifice is a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN).

"We are very happy about Patti's assuming new responsibilities as Nurse Manager," said Carolyn Fenn, Maristhill's Administrator. "She has had a wonderful career with us, and is well known for her dedication and compassion, and for being a major contributor to the quality care provided here at Maristhill."

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care.

People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the 123-bed facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
