Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Celebrates 40th Anniversary in 2010

PROVIDING QUALITY CARE TO RESIDENTS OF WALTHAM AND SURROUNDING AREAS

A Special Thanks to our Generous Sponsors:

WALTHAM, MA –Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, a non-profit provider of rehabilitative services, short-term and long-term care located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that this year marks the organization's fortieth year of serving the greater Waltham community.

A range of activities are being planned throughout the year, culminating with an anniversary dinner and gala which is scheduled for Sunday September 26th at Waltham's Westin Hotel on Third Avenue. Awards, presentations and a festive agenda are planned.

"We are very proud to have served as a community resource over the past four decades," said Carolyn Fenn, Maristhill's Administrator. "Our staff looks forward to sharing Maristhill's history and mission all through 2010, and is planning special presentations and displays for our upcoming celebration in September."

Maristhill's mission focuses on providing health care services that foster each individual's physical, spiritual, emotional and intellectual well-being. It is based on the ethical values of reverence in treating all persons with a deep respect, faith in understanding the importance of spiritual and religious and to providing care to persons of all religions and faiths, integrity, community in working together cooperatively and stewardship,

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care. People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the 123-bed facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
