FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center Welcomes New Rehab Manager

WALTHAM, MA – (September 3, 2010) Maristhill Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, located in Waltham Massachusetts, recently announced that Dhaval Prajapati of Framingham has been hired as Rehabilitation Manager.

Mr. Prajapati has a solid background in therapeutic care, including eight years as a Physical Therapist and several years as a Rehabilitation Manager. A graduate of Daemen College in New York with a bachelor's degree in Physical Therapy, he is currently working toward his Doctorate at Simmons College in Boston. His responsibilities at Maristhill will include the daily oversight of the rehabilitation department along with scheduling, operations management and clinical support.

"I love the geriatric population," Mr. Prajapati said. "Respect for the elderly has been a strong component of my family life, and I truly enjoy working with elders and helping them maintain physical independence and well-being."

"We are very happy to welcome Dhaval to the team," said Carolyn Fenn, Maristhill's Administrator. "His clinical expertise, experience and positive attitude will be great assets to our staff and residents alike."

Originally founded in 1969 by the Marist Missionary Sisters, Maristhill is a licensed skilled-nursing and rehabilitation center with a highly-recognized performance record for clinical excellence and quality care. People of all faiths and denominations are welcomed at the 123-bed facility, which is a member of Covenant Health Systems, a Catholic health care system sponsoring hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living residences and other health and elder services throughout New England.
